News From Ebernoe Reserve

By Colin Booty (Voluntary Reserve Manager)

Driving across to the reserve at the beginning of June I disturbed a small flock of House Martins using a large puddle at the side of the road opposite Wassell Barn. I was delighted to see them as, other than the occasional one, they were the first group I had seen this year. Similarly, Swallow numbers seem low, with visits to various sites often drawing a blank. It was a case of noting what I wasn't seeing at such places. Fortunately, the Swifts returned to our village, albeit later than some years. I wonder whether this group of Summer migrants have encountered weather related problems en route through southern Europe?

These birds may be facing a triple whammy – with a loss of nesting sites, weather related issues on migration and a shortage of aerial insects. The results of the Breeding Bird Survey for 2023 were published in May and paint a disturbing picture of decline. House Martins down 40% in 10 years; Swallows down by almost a half and Swifts showing a 66% decline since 1955. So, for every 10 Swifts that one might have seen screaming overhead 30 years ago today you will only see 4. As the BBS report highlighted, for birds which rely on aerial insects, any decline in these simply means less food for the adults and their growing young.

The BBS report had more positive news regarding Turtle Doves whose population in the western European flyway has shown a slight increase over the last three years – with the 2023 estimate being the highest in the last 10 years. It seems as though the hunting restrictions now in place in several European countries are having a positive effect. However, sadly, so far this year I have not heard one on the reserve.

The combination of a very, mild, wet winter and, at best, a rather unsettled Spring seems to have adversely impacted the number of early butterflies such as Orange Tip and Speckled Wood. June has not started off much better – as a I write this there is a cold wind and we are having a hail storm! But, fingers crossed, conditions will improve for the Summer emergence of the big woodland species such as White Admiral and Silver-washed Fritillary.

Farm Diary by Sue Moss

We had our usual family of shearers join us for sheep shearing late in May, we all agreed it was probably one of the coldest weekends we had sheared in a lot of years. As the grass had grown significantly Marge and the Zwartble gang have returned to their field at the farm, it's nice to have them back. We have been weighing lambs and sending the finished ones(those that weigh 40 kg and above) to Ashford Market each week. We have sold approximately 150 so far, the price held high for the first few sales but in the last week the price per kilo was down significantly. We have to send the Lambs once they are at weight as they will go past their best, holding on to them waiting for the price to improve is not an option.

We had only one period of sunny and dry weather in the last few weeks that gave us enough time to cut a few fields of grass to make Haylage and Hay. We are waiting for the warm weather to arrive to enable us to cut more.

I have bought some day old chicks, some are table birds and some are for egg laying, they will be kept in small pens with heat lamps for the next few weeks. I agreed to home some chicks that were hatched at a PreSchool locally and four very pretty three week old chicks arrived recently having outgrown their classroom ! I also have Guineafowl and Duck eggs about to hatch in my incubators.

As usual there have been ongoing discussions regarding which new equipment is required from what seems like a very long and costly list, a few days ago Rob put forward the need for a new Bale Grab, a piece of equipment used on the front of the Telehandler to pick up wrapped bales by squeezing them as they are lifted. It was decided he should get some quotes and try to source one, needless to say within a couple of days a new one was delivered to the farm.

We will be selling a group of Cattle in the next couple of weeks, they have just been TB tested and passed prior to movement, always a nerve wracking couple of days as the result is awaited. If we get a reactor it puts the farm at a standstill and stops us moving animals. Andy is starting a breeding herd here at the farm, he has explained below his plans.

I've decided to keep some heifers (young females) to start my own breeding herd of cattle, they are Limousins, a large French breed renowned for its quality as a beef animal. I've bought a young Aberdeen Angus bull from a well regarded local breeder whose family have kept and improved this breed since 1936. My aim is to produce a large, well conformed beef animal which makes the best of both its parents ..

.. attributes, taking the high meat yield and fast growth rates from its limousin mother, and the hardiness, ability to utilise grass and eating quality that Aberdeen Angus are known for from the bull. The offspring produced should in theory out perform either parent, this is known as hybrid vigour. The Heifers are currently living right in front of my house in order to “learn some manners” this really means I get to spoil them, make them tame and get them used to me and the kids and the dogs, whilst it’s nice for all our animals to be reasonably quiet, it’s even more important for these as next year when they calve they’ll weigh around 3/4 of a tonne and it’s really important they trust me and we know one another! In order for a heifer to be bred by a bull she has to weigh 55-60% of her adult weight, and then must grow both herself and the calf inside her over the winter, this means it is very important to have high quality forage for them to eat whilst housed and so we have grown a “whole crop” silage behind Honeydowns, so named as you cut and bale the whole crop rather than just the straw, it is a mix of oats and vetch which is a nitrogen fixing legume, meaning it pulls nitrogen from the atmosphere and stores it in nodes in the soil where it is used by the companion crop of oats, this in turn makes the protein & sugar levels in the silage higher and makes for a better quality feed without the need for bagged industrial fertiliser. I also closely monitor the Heifers growth rates to make sure they hit targets set by my vet and I, we use a metric known as as “daily live weight gain” or DLWG and aim for around 1kg of weight gained per day whilst at grass. Lots of things such as stress, weather, grass quality, feed quality and parasites can affect this, so by regularly weighing the cattle we can quickly identify any that aren’t performing as well as I’d like. I’m really enjoying having a group of cattle that I can justify investing the extra work and money into, whilst the beef cattle are also very rewarding you do have to always think about the margin on each whereas it is widely accepted best practice to invest as much as you can into young breeding stock.

We are enjoying home grown vegetables, the new potatoes that are always eagerly awaited certainly lived up to expectations. My Dahlias are just beginning to bloom, they produce beautiful blooms for cutting and I hope to enter some in The Flower and Vegetable Show. Having failed miserably in the challenge from our neighbours in last years carrot class we are hoping for a better result this year !

Little Oaks News

Little Oaks children have had fun learning about patterns this term. So it seems that patterns really are everywherein our classroom and garden, all around the school, in nature and, as discovered by one of our children, they are even in Lidl! We kicked off our learning with a power point introducing patterns and the children loved it! We made repeating patterns, growing patterns, spatial patterns and extended our learning to counting and creating with shapes. We searched for patterns in the environment and completed a 'Pattern Treasure Hunt' around the school. In fact, the children have continued to notice and create patterns everywhere!

The weather has been great for our Forest School sessions. The children have made faces and creatures out of clay, including some fantastic hedgehogs, using twigs for spines. We have had fun making potions, climbing trees and everyone's favourite, hot chocolate at snack time. Our younger children are becoming more aware of the Forest School rules and boundaries with the help of their older peers and are really settling in to playtime in the woods. After the half term break, the children enjoyed investigating creatures from the ocean. We started the week with our ocean tuff tray full of spaghetti and blue gloop. Lots of fun was had exploring the texture, scooping, pouring and making homes for the sea creatures. We had a full-size aquarium in the role play area for the children to climb inside and imagine being under the sea, along with some sea themed books to share stories. An activity thoroughly enjoyed by all was the challenge to rescue some sea creatures from the ice. The children used their problem solving skills to work out how to set them free and experimented with using hammers, salt and brushes to melt the ice.

Our Northchapel school starters have now started their transition sessions to Caterpillar class. Each Friday during this part of the summer term, the children are invited to spend time in their new class getting to know their new teacher, teaching assistants and peers. For support at lunchtime they are assigned a buddy from year 5 who will collect them from class and take them to lunch in the school hall or playground. These sessions have run very smoothly so far and it is lovely to see the new friendships blossoming between the buddies. I always feel very proud of the way the older children take on this responsibility with a kind and caring attitude, which is definitely one of the strengths in our small village school.

During the last part of the summer term, the children are looking forward to taking part in our sports day on the village green and our leavers are excited about their special trip to Aldingbourne Country Centre. Finally, on the last week of term we will be holding a 'Sponsored Safari Stomp' to raise money for our wonderful school PTA.

If you are interested in a pre-school place for your child, please contact us to arrange a visit and register your child with us as soon as possible. Further information is also available on our website www.northchapel.w-sussex.sch.uk

Northchapel Primary School visit to Moncrieff-Bray Gallery

By Christine Parker (Arts Society W Sussex)

On May 24th the Young Arts team from The Arts Society West Sussex enabled pupils from Yr 4,5 and 6 at Northchapel Primary School to visit the Moncrieff- Bray Gallery, Petworth.

With a backdrop of rolling countryside, the pupils sketched the interesting and varied sculptures in the garden under the watchful eye of art educator Maureen Wells. Some did quick drawings while others spent time observing the detail. They were then taught how to use ink to add shading to their drawings.

When inside the gallery the class were instructed on what to look for in work hung on the walls - colour, form and subjects in the paintings and collages. They looked carefully at an artist called Catherine Forshall, who paints marine life using coloured inks. Finally some pupils reported to the rest of the class which was their favourite piece and why.

After a busy and successful morning the pupils returned to school and spent the afternoon drawing and painting in the style of Catherine Forshall. The children, using limited colours, loved working with Maureen and produced some fabulous work.

We are looking for some more volunteers to help run our Tuesday evening youth club sessions. Sessions run from 7-8.30pm at the village hall, term time only. We need a minimum of 2 adults per session & would love to increase the pool of volunteers. No minimum commitment required, we'd just be glad of the help. Please contact Ed Warren or Laura Green if you require further information or are able to help.

A Brief Note from the Editors

Karen and I had the most wonderful 2 week break in our camper-van to France where we toured the country from Cherbourg in the north all the way down to Andorra then on until we hit the Mediterranean in the south at Perpignan, before following the coast to Montpellier, where we headed back up through the center of France aiming for Paris. Karen celebrated her 60th Birthday during our time away, mine will follow in August. We visited our school days friend who settled in the north of France some 13 years ago on our way down the western seaboard, which was an absolute delight. In total we travelled 2100 miles, every one of which was special! Hopefully, if time allows, we will do the same kind of trip through Spain in this, our 60th year.

The Cleaning of St Michael's Church

We appreciate that Saturday mornings are not always easy, especially if you have children, but it would be very much appreciated if you could let me know when you would be able to help us.

If we had enough volunteers we could freshen up the church every other month, or even every third month. Coffee and biscuits are provided to sweeten the chores, and we'd love to make this more of a social event, perhaps with wine and bacon baps, but please make no mistake, WE NEED YOUR HELP!

If we are going to keep our church doors open, we really must care for it. Is one or two hours at a convenient time too difficult? I will provide all cleaning materials, so there are no costs to you!

If you are able to help please call Virginia on 01428 707268 or 07947389641 or email virginiamorgan@sky.com

THE HUNTER CENTRE

Supporting those living with

DEMENTIA

It's the 24th May as I write this piece for the magazine, and I have just returned to my office from the village hall where around 25 of us listened to an amazing talk given by Elaine Clement from the Hunter Centre in Haslemere on Dementia.

Helen explained to her audience some of the traits and visual symptoms of the disease, and what we should all be aware of. Elaine also explained the simple things that we can do to help the sufferer comprehend his or her environment and surroundings better.

Elaine went on to point out the importance of LPA's (Lasting Power of Attorney) for not only the health aspect of the sufferer of the disease, but also for the financial aspect of the sufferer. LPA's are vital, as without an LPA in place money that would normally run their home or their business could in many instances be legally locked and out of reach of partners etc, adding in some insance major issues to the life of the sufferer and their partners and dependants.

So, 'Thank You Elaine' for coming along to the village hall today, we are all very grateful for the valuable information you gave us.

The Northchapel Lunch Club

What a Team!

The Northchapel Lunch Club

By Pam Bruce

The Northchapel Lunch Club has been running for almost 15 years! It followed on from the Seniors Club, which was originally started by Rev Alan Willmer (Rector of Northchapel 1955-1987) with the idea of getting older people together to play whist and enjoy a cup of tea. The Seniors Club then went on to be successfully run by Pansy Older, School caretaker and Lollipop Lady. It was finally taken over by Ruth Vivian from Upper Frithfold Farm, Northchapel.

When the Village Hall was re-furbished in 2009, Ruth and I were both on the hall management committee, we decided we should take advantage of the fully equipped brand new kitchen! So, with the help of Jeanne Stemp, Judy Burden, Stephie Hipkiss and Dot Beglin, we tentatively held the first Lunch Club that November. Roddy Bruce and Andrew Vivian ran the bar. We were actually quite surprised at the success of the lunches, and so made it a permanent fixture in the calendar!

Ruth and Andrew moved to Lodsworth in 2011 and Janis Glover, Yvonne Coonan, Gaye Jordan and Anne Chalton joined the team, followed by Lynda Bell and Denise Lunn. After a break during Covid the Lunch Club then resumed, sadly neither Gaye nor Anne were able to stay but Niamh Dodd stepped in to help out. Naturally not all members of the team are always available – and neither are we as young as we used to be! Roddy still runs the bar (wine still £1 a glass!) with the help of either Malcolm or Clifford.

Numbers have increased over the years and we also welcome members from Ebernoe and Petworth. We usually cater for between 40-50 and the cost of a two course lunch, with tea or coffee, has risen from £3.50 to £5.00. So far we have been able to cover our costs, partly because people are very generous with the Raffle, ably run by Stephie. Any profit we make goes directly to the Village Hall. New members are welcome, please see the parish magazine for details of dates and contact numbers.
